

THE TIGERS OF ST. XAVIER SHOOT 293 TO WIN THE COVINGTON CATHOLIC/STEVE FLESCH INVITATIONAL

St. Xavier High School in Louisville placed four players in the top six overall to shoot 293 and capture the Covington Catholic/Steve Flesch Invitational held at Boone Links in Florence, Kentucky.

The Tigers were lead by junior Billy Basham, who fired a 1-under par 71 and was followed closely by junior Michael Sass's 1-over par 73. Allen Hamilton, also a junior, was next for St. X shooting a 2-over par 74 while junior Matt Liston completed the scoring with a 3-over par 75. Finishing in a tie for runner-up were the Eagles of Lexington Christian Academy and the Shamrocks of Trinity High School. Lexington Christian won as their fifth man shot a lower score than that of the Trinity player. Leading the Eagles were brothers Gresham and Tanner Wilson as both players shot 3-over par 75's. Senior Blake Young was next for LCA with a 4-over par 76 while junior Carter Pettigrew completed the scoring for the Eagles with a 6-over par 78. Leading the Shamrocks was senior Zach Mattingly, who fired an even par 72. Senior James Inman was next with a 4-over par 76 while seniors Jake Mattingly and Grant Hummel completed the scoring for Trinity shooting 78. Finishing in 4th place with a team total of 301 were the Raiders of Ryle High School. Leading the way for the Raiders was Zach Adams who shot a 3-over par 75. West Jessamine High School was next in 5th place with 312 as the Colts were lead by senior Connor Hass who fired a 2-over par 74. Host Covington Catholic High School finished alone in 6th place with a team total of 322 and were lead by teammates Paul Huber and Evan Thompson who both shot 78. Cincinnati St. Xavier High School was next in 7th place, shooting a team score of 325 and were lead by Cameron Frazier's 3-over par 75.

Basham, who was the only player in the field to shoot under par, won by a stroke over Zach Mattingly of Trinity. Sass of St. Xavier finished 3rd with a 1-over par 73 while Hamilton of St. Xavier and Haas of West Jessamine tied for 4th place with 74's. In a six way tie for 6th place were Frazier of Cincinnati St. Xavier, Liston of St. Xavier, Adams of Ryle, Gresham and Tanner Wilson of Lexington Christian and Luke Tobergte of St. Henry. Inman of Trinity, David Stevens of Henry Clay, Logan Gamm of Ryle and Young of Lexington Christian all tied for 12th place shooting 76.

The event is named for Covington Catholic alumni and PGA Tour Professional Steve Flesch.
