

TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL DEFENDS TEAM TITLE AT CARDINAL CLASSIC

JACKSON CO. SOPHOMORE ZACH NORRIS SHOOTS 71 TO CLAIM INDIVIDUAL TITLE

Trinity High School defended their team title to win the 2014 Cardinal Classic hosted by Taylor Co. High School.

The Shamrocks shot a team score of 300 to win by nine shots over Franklin Co. High School. Leading the way for Trinity was Jake Mattingly, who fired a 1-over par 73 and finished runner-up. James Inman and Jake Mattingly (Zach's brother) were next for the ROCKS with 2-over par 74's while Grant Hummel rounded out the scoring with a 6-over par 78. The Flyers of Franklin Co. were lead by Jacob Cook and C.J. Jones as both players shot 74. Will Molen was next with an 8-over par 80 while Ben Nolan completed the scoring with a 9-over par 81. Host Taylor Co. High School finished 3rd in the team standings at 313 as the Cardinals were lead by seniors Andrew Scalos and Derek Keeton. Both players shot 77. Pulaski Co., lead by Kellen Wilson's 4-over par 76, were next in 4th place at 321. Finishing 5th was Jackson Co. which shot a team score of 329 and was lead by medalist Zach Norris, who was the only player in the field to shoot under par as the sophomore shot a 1-under par 71.

Norris won by two shots over Trinity's Jake Mattingly and was three shots clear of Cook and Jones of Franklin Co. and Inman of Trinity. Zach Mattingly of Trinity was alone in 6th place with a 3 over par 75 while Wilson of Pulaski Co. was 7th with a 76. A quartet of players tied for 8th place - Zach Miller of Madison Central, Scalos and Keeton of Taylor Co. and Cole Manion of Grayson Co. Cooper Parks of Taylor Co. and Hummel of Trinity tied for 12th place with 6-over par 78's while Jaaron Hignite of Jackson Co. and Gray Gupton of Ballard tied for 14th place as both players recorded 79.
