

SHELBY CO. LADY ROCKETS KICKS OFF THE SEASON WITH HOME WIN AT WEISSINGER HILLS GOLF COURSE

Shelby Co. High School shot a team total of 334 to defeat 3-time state champion Sacred Heart Academy by five shot in the Lady Rockets Classic held at Weissinger Hills Golf Course.

The Lady Rockets were lead by senior Madison Thomas, who shot a 2-over par 74 to finish in 4th place overall. Sophomore Lilly Young was next for Shelby Co. with a 9-over par 81 while her teammate Jennifer Fuqua had 87. Completing the scoring was sophomore Jenna Lewis who recorded a 92 over the 5600 yard layout. Sacred Heart, who was playing without senior Maddie Hamilton, was lead by senior Meredith Moir's 8-over par 80. Morgan Tinsley and Ryan Bender were next for the Valkeries as both players shot 86. Molly Abel, who recently won the Junior Fall Cities Championship, completed the scoring the Sacred Heart shooting 87. Boyle Co. High School finished 3rd in the team standings as senior Caroline McDonald lead the way with a 9-over par 81. Scott Co. High School was next in 4th place with a team total of 347 and was lead by junior Kylie Lysack's 80. Henry Clay High School was 5th as senior Kie Purdom shot an even par 72 that also earned her medallist honors.

Purdom's winning score was one shot better that teammate Leslie Ginter, a senior, and Olivia Cason from Owensboro Catholic. Thomas of Shelby Co. was alone in 4th place with a 74 while senior MacKenzie Peyton of Henry Co. placed 5th with a 3-over par 75. Judianne Speach, a junior at West Jessamine High School, was next in 6th place shooting a 7-over par 79. Moir of Sacred Heart and Lysack of Scott Co. were next in 7th place while Shelby Co.'s Young, Boyle Co.'s McDonald and Henry Co.'s Maddie Hensley all tied for 9th place with 81's. Michaela Jarman of Boyle Co., Kaylee Wilson of Pulaski Co. and Mallory Lovell of Scott Co. tied for 12th place after all three players shot 83.
